

Discussion Strategies for Meaningful, Effective Conversation Practice

Have you ever asked students to discuss a reading, topic, or film only to have the room go quiet?

In this webinar, we will:

- explore discussion formats that keep students engaged and focused while upholding individual accountability
- identify benefits of student discussions for critical thinking and language learning
- outline specific ways to help your students engage and connect meaningfully in English conversation practice

Why talk about different discussion formats?

- Acknowledge variations in our classrooms
- Address differing learning styles
- Allow for differentiation in instruction

Principles of Communicative Language Teaching

- Make real communication the focus of language learning.
- Provide opportunities for learners to experiment and try out what they know.
- Be tolerant of learners' errors as they indicate that the learner is building up his or her communicative competence.
- Classroom activities should be meaningful and involve real communication.

advantages and disadvantages to group discussion?

Advantages to Group Discussion

- “All of us is smarter than one of us.”
- Creativity
- Memory
- Insight into self
- Insight into others
- Teamwork

Disadvantages to Group Discussion

- Conformity
- Domination
- Laziness
- Difficult to Assess

Addressing Disadvantages: What makes group work successful?

- The group has a clear objective, a tangible outcome or product.
- Every member of the group has a role.
- Members are held responsible for that role.
- Every member of the group is necessary to complete the task.
- Discussions reflect real life (CLT).

4. Spider Web Discussion

Inner Circle – Outer Circle

- Can be shorter (standing) or longer (sitting) to get students interacting.
- Reduces anxiety about speaking in front of the class.

Inner Circle - Outer Circle: Small Talk

Phoom: Hi, I'm Phoom! What's your name?

Yeji: I'm Yeji. Nice to meet you.

Natalya: What do you like to do after school?

Jip: I play volleyball. How about you?

- Timing: 30 sec. to 5 min.
- Two Circles: inner - outer
- Introduction + Small Talk

Ideas for Large or Low-level Classes

My partner's name:	My partner's name:	My partner's name:
Something I learned about _____ during small talk:	Something I learned about _____ during small talk:	Something I learned about _____ during small talk:

- For low- or mixed-level classes:
  - Allow students to write down ideas first.
  - Use a graphic organizer.
- For large classes:
  - Instead of a circle, let students talk with nearby classmates.

Note: Walk around and informally assess. You can collect handout for formative assessment.

What challenges might you face in your classrooms using inner circle – outer circle?

Chalk Talk: A Silent Conversation

Chalk Talk

- A written, silent discussion.
- T prepares by writing one question per poster around the room.
- Ss spend 1-2 minutes at each poster.
  - Ss can respond to the question or other classmates' comments.
  - Ss can draw responses (learning styles).
- Ss return to original poster and share what they find interesting to conclude the activity.

A Variety of Classrooms

Digital Chalk Talk

- T prepares by writing questions on digital platform.
- Ss are put into small breakout rooms for set time.
- Each group discusses questions.
- Each group has one note-taker who writes responses on the Jamboard or Padlet.
- Debrief as a whole group.

How do you assess student discussion?

Spider Web Discussion

- Students prepare for discussion on a given topic, text, or Ted Talk before class.
- Students sit in a circle facing each other.
- Students talk for a set amount of time.
- Teacher observes and takes notes using template.

Teacher's Role: Formative Assessment

Reflection Questions

1. What challenges do you experience when implementing discussion practice in your classroom?
2. What are some solutions to those challenges that have worked in your classroom?
3. What are some of your students' favorite speaking activities? What makes them engaging?
